Are the progressive merchants in every line. Perusal of the advertising columns of the DISPATCH can only result in mutual profit between buyer

VOL. XXXIX.

CANFIELD, MAHONING COUNTY, OHIO, NOVEMBER 5, 1915.

Bright, Breezy Paragraphs Telling The Happenings In the Village on Mahoning's Southern Border.

BY CLARENCE BAKER

Mrs. Pealer spent Tuesday in Salem. Clarence Baker was a Youngstown caller Sunday afternoon, Miss Alice Platt spent Saturday night with friends in calem. Miss Alice Stouffer of Lowellville spent Sunday at her home here Hiram Coates of New Castle was a visitor in the village over Sunday, Paul French and Fred Burchfield of Salem called on friends here Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stouffer spent Wednesday with Wm. Shinn and wife. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stouffer spent Wednesday with Wm. Shinn and wife. Miss Lesta Bossert spent Monday night with Miss Mae Murphy in Sa-

Adin Lynn of East Lewistown spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Bert De-

Miss Bertha Shaffer of Salem spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Alice Floyd Stamp and wife of Alliance called on Mr. and Mrs. O. Bossert last Thursday. Miss Marjory Cook of Greenford visited her sister, Mrs. . alter Smith, Mrs. Wm, King of Salem spent Friday here with her parents, Mr. and

Wm. Roller. Mrs. Ella Bare of Salem spent Sunday here with her parents, Mr. and Elmer Warner.

Jane Monday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Denner of Youngstown spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spear.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herron are the proud parents of a fine baby boy The best farmer, Maud Tetlow, 50c in torn Tuesday morning. Misses Nellie Smith and Laura Nold of Leetonia spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Ruth Bossert. Joseph Thorp and Charles Bossert attended the football game at Mt. Union last Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Mary Shirie and Mrs. Eliza Liddle of Elwood City, Pa., spent Sunday with John Fieldhouse, sr. Mrs. Wm. Holt and Mrs. Geo. King, sr., and Mrs. George King, jr., were Salem callers Monday evening. Misses Millie Mathey and Helen Pealer of Salem spent Saturday and Sunday with their parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Blackwood and children of Leetonia spent Sunday with Joe Tourdot and family. Coral Baker of Cleveland and Mr and Mrs. Wm. Baker of Salem called Sunday on Harvey Baker and family.

Mrs. David Weikart and daughter Grace spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Warren Welkart in Lee-Mrs. George Kertley and Mrs. Ward of East Palestine called Tuesday on Mrs. John McIntosh and John Field-Miss Ida Young of Seoring and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Armstrong of Irondale spent ounday with John Field-

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ballantine and sons George and Jack of Leetonia spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Mary Woods.

Mrs. Mary Woods celebrated her 64th birthday last Sunday. She entertained at dinner Mr. and Mrs.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Denner of Youngstown spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stouffer.

Mrs. George Ashman of East Pales tine and Richard Chappeil of Salem were Sunday guests of Thomas Dalrymple and wife. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Roller returned home last Thursday after several days' visit with relatives in Cleveland, Girard and Youngstown, The K. of P. dance was an enjoy able affair. The dance and social re alized $31.22. The K. of P. will hold another dance a week from next Sat Tod Keist, wife and son, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Guterloy and two daughters, Mabel and Ada, and Mrs. Goldner of Leetonia spent Sunday with Mr.

and Mrs. Henry Stouffer. Jacob Parry attended a farewell re ception given Percy Mundy last Friday evening in Salem. The receiption was given by the members of the Agoga Bible class of the First Baptist church. Mrs. Mary Woods celebrated her 64th birthday last Sunday. She enter-tained at dinner Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ballantine and children and Mr. and Mrs. Harley Woods and two daughters Dorothy and Helen. Contractor Connelly of Youngstown started to grade the road for paving between Leetonia and Washingtonville last Friday. Keep the good work go-ing and Washingtonville will soon have all good roads. Wm. Dalrymple and daughter Mary attended the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. James Gal-Youngstown last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gallagher received some beautiful pieces of silver, Quite a number from here attended the Hallowe'en celebration, in Salem Monday night. Ansel Senheiser rea prize for the best Irishman and Paul Senhelser also received a prize for the best Dutchman. Miss Florence Green and James Babb of West Point were united in marriage this week. They are spending their honeymoon in Pittsburgh. Mr. Babb was a former resident of this place and has the best wishes of many friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Makin, Paul Makin, Alva Boston and Harry Longbottom of Akron motored here Satur day. They stopped in Salem and brought Miss Leona Boston home with them to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Feston Boston, over Sunday. The young people were in the Hallowe'en parade after which Mrs. Boston aerved an elegant chicken supper. Miss Galbreath of Lectonia and Misses Murnie Dalrymple and Martha Thorp of this place and John Fieldhouse of East Palestine were invited guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Candie of New WASHINGTONVILLE Philadelphia visited his mother here

ast Friday. Mrs. James King and Mrs. Dan Heister were Youngstown callers last Wednesday.

Miss Loretta Bowker and Misse Lena and Freda Bowker went to Lis-bon Tuesday to visit a few days. A number from here attended the Hallowe'en parades in Salem and Coumbiana Monday night.

The grading of the Detrow hill, east of town, was let last Monday to Sam Culp at 23 cents a yard,
The football game between Washingtonville and Beloit at Beloit last Sunday resulted in defeat for Wash ngtonville by a score of 6 to 0. The Forresters held a euchre party for members after lodge last Friday evening. Mont Weikart received first prize and Hugh Dalrymple received the booby. Geo. Firth, John Possage, William Faloon, Albert Culler, William Key ser, James Palsley and Clarence Bak er attended the football game in Youngstown last Sunday afternoon. Without opposition Ed. Girard was chosen mayor of the village last Tues day, Albert Culler; clerk, Hugh Mc Intosh; treasurer, Elwood Bertolette; J. C. Weikart, A. L. Taylor, Elmer Warner, Earle Chamberlain and Har ry McNeal as councilmen; O. Bosseri and David Klingensmith members of the school board and George Hall marshal. The wets defeated the drys by 10 votes, About 150 participated in the Hallowe'en parade last Saturday night.

The procession was lead by the mayor Charles Stouffer over the main streets of the village. After the parade they marched to the mayor's office where the prizes wer awarded by the judges C. E. Holt and Jacob Parry, as fol-Albert Graham, sr., of Cleveland lows: The best fancy dressed girl, called on Mr. and Mrs. Charles De-Mrs. Wm. Simpson and the best fancy dressed man, Robert Konkel of Lee tonia received each fifty cents in merchandise at Senheiser Bro's store. Best tramp, Loran Taylor, 50 cents in merchandise at Sam Platt's store.

> merchandise at George Firth's poo room. Best colored lady, Lloyd Yoder and the best clown, Lawrence Shaffer of Salem, both receiving 500 each in merchandise at C. H. Weikart's store; best old mother goose, Miss Nettle Gaughen of Leetonia, 500 in merchandise at Wm. Dalrmyple's; best cowboy, Alfred Brunner of Mill-ville, 50c in merchandise at J. E. Gilbert's store, and best Indian boy, Richard Sheen of Millville, 50c in trade at C. E. Holt's, and best Indian girl. Miss Murnie Dalrymple, 50c in trade at Arthur Johnson's butcher shop. The Greenford band furnished the music and everyone had a jolly time.

MILLVILLE

Nov. 3-The mardi gras celebration n Salem was a decided success, especially the drills given by the Boy Scouts an dother orders, and a large crowd from this community attended. Mrs. A. B. Coy has concluded a vist with her daughter in Canton and from Mt. Eaton Monday evening returned home.

Ernest Taylor and camily motored few days.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Wint of Columiana spent Sunday with friends here. Mrs. W. G. Lawrence of Salem was he guest of friends in the village the past few days. Ralph Arner of Youngstown was at he home of his parents here Sunday. Rev. Frank Albus, rector of the Episcopal church of Salem, has decided to remain with his congregation in Salem. While an offer from New Castle was a flattering one in a financial way, Rev. Albus admitted that his work n the Slem church has been accord ed such hearty support and his associations outside his congregation has been so pleasant, he and his family lo not want to leave Salem.

Rev. W. L. Swan of Salem was a village caller Saturds v. Mrs. John Lippia and children pent Wednesday at the home of Mrs.

be Calladine in Salem. A short temperance program was given at the M. E. Sunday school in Salem as follows: Song by four boys, "De Jubilee of Temperance"; reading by Prof. J. L. Gray, superintendent of township schools; "Women and child-en first," solo by W. N. Filler and a closing song by the school. Mrs. Laura Garside of Salem, under whose directions 34 medal contests were held during the past year, has just received announcement from Florence D. Richards, state W. C. T. U. president, who attended the convenion, that she won third prize, which s a beautiful silver star, at the national convention at Seattle, Wash., for holding the most local contests. Mrs. Garside is president of the Winona W. C. T. U. The first and third prigexpected. es were taken by Ohio as well as honorable mention in contest work and other departments. At the state convention Mrs. Garside was awarded a prize of 50 educators for her contest

Mrs. Chas. Lee of Salem has con-cluded a visit with friends here and returned home Sunday.

KNAUFVILLE

Nov. 3-Nicholas Knauf and family spent Sunday afternoon at J. H. Low-

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rhodes and children of Peach Hill spent Sunday at Herbert Knauf's. Mr. Creed and family of Austin-own called at Fred Mayer's Tuesday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ewing and family of Toot's Corners were callers in the evening. Mrs. Mayer's onditon remains unchanged. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knauf and daughter Nellie spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ira Seachrist of Columbiana Mrs. Frank Knauf spent Tuesday and Wednesday with her mother who resides in Canfield township. Lots of rabbits killed in this vicin ity Monday.

Mrs. Fred Mayer desires to thank her many friends who so kindly re-membered her birthday by sending her learly 100 heautiful post cards,

The ple social which was to have been held in the school house last Saturday night was postponed until Saturday evening, Nov. 6

ISLAND

Nov. 3-H. H. Calvin is driving an Overland touring car. Miss Maggie Rohrer of Harrisburg a., who spent a week here, left for Burton City Friday to visit er sister, Mrs. Ava Eberly. The second prem'um on sun flower stock at the Oak Dale School fair was awarded to Joseph Gologranz instead of Joeeph Wenger as stated last week. S. G. McClun, Miss Pearl Summers and Henry Lehman and family speat Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barger at Pleasant Valley, A. S. Brubaker has installed a new power washing machine and gas engine for his wife Miss Edith Calvin of Clarksville as entertained by her aunt; Mrs. H.

H. Calvin, Saturday. Blosser Bro's are kept busy at their apple butter factory.
Miss Annie Good of Wayne county is visiting her brother Samuel and Gill Rowe and family were guests of friends in North Lima Sunday. Joseph Lesher and Mrs. Hannah Metzler are keeping house for Dan Weaver in his absence. Arthur Wisler and wife, Jonas, Liz tie and Mary Knopp and Mr. and Mrs. John Horst called on Jonas Wisler and family, Sunday.

The many friends here of A. E. Keller of Columbiana were sorry to hear of the passing of his wife who died Friday of typhoid fever. Earl Klingensmith, employed by the American Express Co. in Youngstown, was home with his parents over Sun-Quite a number from here were in Youngstown Sunday to hear Bryan liscuss the prohibition question. Mrs. John Detrow and daughter Verda ate their Sunday dinner with Mrs. Ella Detrow. Miss May Roller gave an oyster supper to a number of friends Thursday evening in honor of her 51st birthday anniversary S. R. Martin and family spent Sunday in the home of Ben Ziegler at North Lima, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Weaver and Mrs.

hart county, Indiana, to remain with friends for several weeks. A. W. Detrow had business in Salem Tuesday. I. T. Rohrer and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Nick Stemphli visited B. L. Weaver and wife Sunday. Jonas Wisler had another severe at tack of nose bleeding Sunday.

Mary Basinger left Thursday for Elk-

Fred Bruderly and family were Sunday guests of his parents in Snodes. S. D. Culp has the contract to grade the John Detrow hill which is to be done this fall.

H. H. Calvin was notified Monday to appear in court Wednesday and serve as a petit juror. Israel and Amos Wenger were among the many who spen Sunday afternoon in Youngstown. Amos and Alvin Detrow, Amanda, Richard and Julia Painter returned where they attended the funeral of their nephew, Clyde Shoup, who was o Pittsburgh Sunday to visit friends killed while on duty as a brakemean on the Pennsy railroad.

BERLIN CENTER

Nov. 3-The masquerade box social held in the school auditorium last Friday night was enjoyed by a large crowd. The boxes brought nearly $50 Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ressler spent Sunday with their parents in Ellsworth.

A number from here attended the dry meetings in Youngstown Sunday. Henry Shively of Cleveland was tuest of friends here over Sunday.

The Sunday school rally held in the M. E. Church Sunday morning was largely attended. A good program was rendered and much appreciated by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hack and H. M. Gunder and wife spent Sunday in Youngstown. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Knauf of Knaufville were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Goodman. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Carrier of Deer field and Mr. and Mrs. James Blythe and son James of Wampum, Pa., spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Durr

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Beardsley had a very narrow escape from being badly burned last Sunday evening. A gas oline lamp failed to burn right and Earl thought to help matters by doctoring it. Suddenly the gasoline spurted out over them and lamp, and immediately all were burning, including the kitchen of their new house Before the fire was extinguished the room was badly smoked and burned and Earl has badly burned arms. He is getting along as well as could be

Louis Rakestraw has been granted a divorce, effective after 60 days, from Mary Rakestraw on the ground of wilful absence.

HICKORY

Nov. 3-Rev. G. W. Brown of Youngstown will give a lecture, 'The American Boy," in Concord church Tuesday evening, Nov. 9. The lecture is full of fun. Don't miss hearing it. Admission 10c.

The Woman's Missionary Society will hold a bazaar and chicken supper at the home of R, M. Justice Friday evening, Nov. 12. Supper from 5 to 8 o'clock. Everybody attend. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ken eigh, a baby girl last Wednesday. Mrs. R. M. Justice returned home last Thursday from Newark after a week's visit with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Greenawalt. orge Riley is sick in the Salem nospital

Mr. and Mrs. Maze Catell of Snodes spent Saturday night and Sunday with Harvey McDonald. The teacher and pupils of No. school in Goshen will hold a school fair and entertainment at the school ouse Wednesday evening, Nov. 10. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cessna entertained the Beechwood Sporting Club at heir home last Saturday. Emmet Justice and family moved from Knaufville last Wednesday to heir home here.

WINTER CROP LOOKS PROMISING

WEST AUSTINTOWN Nov. 3-Frank E. Fryfogle, who was employed by Ward Snyder in Jackson township, accidently shot himself last Saturday while trying to chase a rabbit from under a brush pile with the butt end of a shot gun, the hammer presumably having caught on one of the limbs and discharged the weapon. The charge entered the body under the breast bone and death must nave been instantaneous. Neighors heard the report of a gun about 3 p. m. Mr. Snyder's family was not at home during the day and the body was not found until late in the evening. Deceased was the son of Eli Frifogle of this place by his first wife and was born in North Georgetown 29 years ago. There he spent his boyhood. He was unmarried and was held in high esteem by all who knew him. He is survived by his father, stepmother, three sisters and three brothers-Mrs. Charles Campbell of Sebring, Hilda and Evelyn and Ray Eldis and Donald Fryfogle. The remains were taken to the Beech church services were held Tuescay at 11 a.m. Burial in the church cemetery. Farmers are busy with fall work but they still have much to do.

Mr. and Mrs. Elf Gilbert and Mr. nd Mrs. Frank Gilbert of Warren and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Florence and daughter of Berlin Center were Sunday guests of G. W. DeHoff and fam-Isaac Hewitt of Warren is visiting here with friends and relatives. He returned Saturday from his Michigan Edith Rowe, Sadie Minck, Maudeline trip and reports visitin: relatives in Snyder, Carolyn Wetmore, Virginia different parts of the state. He also visited some former Austintown town-ship people of Wood county. Reuben Shafer, Gerald Minck, Chaunce Corli ident, sent W. Ohl a very fine apple veighing 14 ounces, While David Shirey was working for G. W. Ripple one day last week spent with music and games and at some one entered his house and stole a late hour a delicious lunch was butter, bacon and cookles.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Campbell and son of Sebring visited the latter's parents the past week. Ohl attended the funeral of Frank Frifogle in North Georgetown Tuesday. Grandma Schrader of Jackson ownship is growing feeble and is confined to her hed.

MILTON

Nov. 3-There will be a school fair and box social at the Schrader's Corners school house Saturday evening, Nov. 6. A good time is anticipated. All are welcome. Miss Faye Cox is the popular teacher.

Farmers are rejoicing on account of he fine weather to finish up fall work. Mrs. Milton Florence spent several lays last week in Palmyra.

Mis Helen Parhal ha returned to Youngstown after spending several veeks in the country. Edward Craig of Canfield was home short time Sunday. Joseph Osborne took the family of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Reed and daugh- ter Caroline. ter Bertha to Canfield Sunday in his automobile. Two nephews and two nieces of Wm. Creed motored from Lloyd Sunday and ate dinner with their uncle's family.

Wm. Craig had business in Canfield Monday.

A very enjoyable time was had last week Wednesday evening at the home of Rev. G. H. Klotz in Ellsworth when members and friends of the four churches of his charge gave him a iberal donation, and served an oyster supper. The home was filled to overflowing. Rev. Klotz and family are highly esteemed by their people. David Stitle and family motored to Detroit and Windsor, Canada.

Canfield Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Seneca Hartzell of Berlin visited at Wm. Stitle's Sunday. Frank Miller and his crew thresh ed at Gideon Klingeman's last Satur-

ELLSWORTH

Nov. 3-Mrs. Forest Hammond on the sick list.

Grange met Tuesday evening, There was preaching in the Pres yterian church Sunday evening. Supt. J. C. Skaggs of Canfield vis ted the school here one day last

A donation party was given Rev. G. H. Klotz and family last week Wedesday evening. Rev. Brown gave his stereopticon lews in the Presbyterian church unday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson McKey of Col. Bryan speak. donessen, Pa., have come to spend

Miss Josephine McLain of Mahon ingtown, Pa., spent Saturday and Sunday here with John McKinney. Hunters are numerous this neigh-

SMITH'S CORNERS

Nov. 3-Mrs. Chas. Corll and so Frances are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Givins, in Salem. Mrs. Myrtle Doll spent a few days his week with Mrs. Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. George DeHoff spent Sunday at Eli Crum's. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Buchwalter called at Dr. J. H. Schnurrenberger's

one evening last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rowe and son spent Sunday at Jack Bates' in Jackson township. Mrs. S. H. Snyder and children spent Saturday night in Youngstown.

Miss Edna Bowman is keeping house for Eli Crum while Mrs, Crum is visiting her sister in Massillon. Grandma Snyder, who has been very sick the past week, is not improving.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Wetmore and children and Evelyn Shafer were Sunday evening guests at Wm. Rowe's. The school fair in Austintown Thursday night was largely attended and the school display was grand, near North Georgetown where funeral Mrs. Wm. Peck has been staying with her mother, Mrs. Snyder, for a few days. Mrs, Sarah Lorentz is staying at Eli Crum's a few days. M. Hole and family of Salem called at Mrs. Snyder's Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rowe entertained a number of friends Monday evening in honor of their daughter Margaret, it being her sixteenth birthday Those present were Misses Emma Hake, Beatrice Clay, Evelyn Shafer, Fish and Margaret Rowe; Fish, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Wetmore Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rowe and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Fish. The evening was served. Black and yellow governed every detail of the nicely arranged lunch. The rooms were with many beautiful bouquets of chrysanthemums. Miss Rowe received a number of beautiful gifts. CORNERSBURG

Nov. 3-Mrs, George Brooks and Mrs. Earl Corll spent last Tuesday in the home of their sister Mrs. Elton Jrum, of the city.

Mrs. Ibbie Patterson has recovered rom a slight illness William C. Ryder attended a Halowe'en masquerade party in the ome of C. B. Clay in Youngstown last Wednesday evening. The party was given in honor of their son, Howard May. Mrs. Elton Crum and daughter, Mrs. Albert Nelson of the city were Thursday visitors in the home of Earl Corll. U. F. Kistler and wife attended a Hallowe'en party in the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Kistler of Haselton Friday evening. The party was given for the pleasure of their little daugh-

Chauncey Coler of Calla was a Satrday visitor at G. W. Strock's. Miss Henrietta Sturm of Parkview venue was a Saturday caller.

Alexander Adamson and wife of Ak on, F. R. Kistler and family of Hascity were Sunday callers in the home Mrs. Caroline Phillips. Mrs. R. T. Osborne spent Monday ifternoon with her two neices, Misses Amy and Mary Osborne, in the home of W. A. Osborne of Boardman. The young ladies were severely injured Saturday evening while on their way to a masquerade party by 'eing run down by an automobile. Mrs. John H. Lewis has returned rom a visit with friends in Cleveland, Youngstown. P. B. Riblet and wife, G. W. Ryder and wife and Mrs. Thomas Wanamaker attended the funeral of Enos Hum of Struthers Monday afternoon.

was accompanied by G. M. Fagan of

EAST LEWISTOWN

Lucy Painter is very sick.

ley Saturday.

Nov. 3-C. H. Blosser of East Pal estine called on his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blosser, Sunday after Joe Engler is helping Henry Blosser make apple crates. Mr. B has a lot of orders ahead. Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Guy of East Palestine called on relatives here Sunday afternoon.

Youngstown Sunday afternoon to hear Farmers are taking advantage of the winter here with Mr. and Mrs. the nice fall weather, getting their E. E. Bennett. Seth Blosser had business in Neg-

Clark Mellinger and lady friend called on his parents Sunday after-

A good many from here went to

NORTH LIMA

Nov. 3-The rabbit season opened Monday and hunters are numerous, Farmers are busy husking corn and finishing up fall work, Leroy Stafford filled the pulpit of the Mt. Olivet Reformed church last Sunday morning in the absence of Rev. L. J. Rohrbaugh, who has gone to bring home his wife, who recently underwent an operation in Philadelphia. Their friends are glad to know that they both have recovered from their recent illness.

Rev. John Hobson and family are moving this week into John Pfau's house, which was recently vacated by the owner. The parsonage will be rented for the present, a being too small for the pastor's large family. Henry Glenn and Jay Glenn and family spent Sunday in Girard with Will Glenn and family. W. E. Glenn, a former resident of this village is seriously ill at Girard, with no hope of Frank Ramsey and family moved to their new home at Perkins Corners Wednesday. W. J. Ramsey and wife moved last week.

Leonard Stratton and wife will move into the Clinker property vacated by the Ramseys, and Earl Klein knecht and wife will move into the house occupied by Mr. Statton. Jonathan Lodwick and wife of Mineral Ridge were guests of Sol Beard and wife one day last week. Mrs. Lucy Painter of East Lewis town, well known here, is reported as being very ill with pneumonia. A number from here took in the Hallowe'en celebration at Columbiana

Monday evening. The Castalian Literary Society of the high school gave a very nice Hallowe'en play in the school auditorium last Friday evening.

Youngstown spent a day last week with friends here. Rev. C. R. Havighurst of the Trinity church of Youngstown spoke here on Monday evening on the temperance question. A large crowd heard him. Our people turned out in large num-bers Sunday afternoon to hear Richnond Hobson at Youngstown and join in the large and enthusiastic parade of men, women and children that ance after the speech. A number went in automobiles and three special cars the Y. & S. were well filled. Michael Botesch met with a serious accident last Sunday afternoon while out riding his newly purchased motor cycle. He was coming out Market street in Youngstown when he was struck by an automobile which was backing out of a garage. He was picked up in an unconscious condition and at once conveyed in an ambul-ance to the City hospital. She sustained quite serious injuries and will be confined at the hospital for several weeks. One leg was broken in two places and one foot and hand badly

WILLOW GROVE

Nov. 3-John Eckenrode had th misfortune to be thrown from a mot orcycle one day last week and have his arm fractured. He was otherwise badly injured.

Floyd Burgett spent a few days last week at Wilbur Follweiler's at Perkin's Corners. Terse Smith and family have mov ed to Austintown, Miss Edith Fink and brother Carl of Lordstown spent Sunday at Orris

Neff's John Burgett and Roy Brooks were n Youngstown Saturday night. Mrs. Wilbur Follweiler and son Har ry of Perkins Corners spent Sunday at Oscar Burgett's.

Fifty young people gathered at the home of T. B. Carlisle Friday evening for a masquerade party given by Miss Isabelle Seeley. Games were the chief amusements of the evening. A delicious super was served and at a late hour the company departed for their respective homes. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Artic Messerly, Mrs. Oscar Burgett Mrs. Nora Burgett and Mrs. T. B. Carlisle, Misses Sylvia and Maude Burgett, Idabelle Seeley, Amy Kerns, Louise Crum, Dorothy Wallop, Miss Crowley, Tillie Ferdinan, Mary Elizabeth and Emma Scheetz, Florence Droney, Marie Harmon, Goldie Messerly, Viola Fink, Eva Baker, Mildred Brown, Lauretta and Margaret Young, Anetta, Lavine Maude Robey, Messrs, Alsberger, Leo Scheetz, Thomas Crowley, Paul Duke, William Coats, Ralph Baker, John Vinings, Charley Crawford, Elmer Messerley, John and Floyd Burgett, Brooks, Glen and Harry Follweiler, Roy Schisler, Walter Crum, Ward Hull, Blon Organ, Walter Scott, Paul Waters, Rafl Schoffner, Charles Kemb le, Gerald Minck, Jack Ramsey,

MAPLE GROVE

Nov. 3-The West Virginia Gas Co ound a paying gas well on the farm of E. N. Beardsley and same has been piped to the main line. Alice Hendricks and Clara Feicht spent Sunday afternoon with Daniel Fishel.

Jonas Detwiler had an arm badly hurt while in the employ of Elosser brothers. H. L. Weikart of Canfield bought the H. R. Calvin woods and will move his saw mill there. Grandma Detwner is not so and has gone to the home of daughter, Mrs. G. S. Bush. her Eustus. Quite a number from here were in Salem Monday night. Edna Coy called on Mary Burkholder Sunday. Word has been received here death of Clyde Shoup. Henry Leinbach and family passed tarough here Tuesday in his automo-bile enroute to Goshen, Ind., where he will spend sometime with his parents and other relatives. The Ladies' Ald soc'ety of the Christian church will hold a chicken-pic supper in grange hall, Greenford, Saturday evening at which time they Rose and atte will sell the friendship quilt. All North Jackson. nembers of the church are earnestly requested to attend and help with the supper. The public is also cordially invited to be present.

EAST CANFIELD STREET

$1.00 A YEAR

Nov. 3-Dr. Wahn and Allie Stitle of Youngstown made a call at Robert Kyle's Tuesday. Mrs. Nora Burgett and daughter Sylvia of Cornersburg spent a few hours Tuesday with Mrs. Mary Wehr and daughter Lillie. Mrs. T. G. Stratford won the silver medal in the matron's contest held at the Normal College last week Wed-nesday night out of the following six which entered: Mrs. Robert Byerly, Mrs. George Paulin, Mrs. John Rice, Mrs. F. P. Leyman, Mrs. John Fries and Mrs. T. G. Stratford.

Mrs. Edward Sprinkle called at Mrs. Mary Wehr's Tuesday. Mrs. Lois Edsall and daughter, Mrs. E. P. Ressler, and Leroy Toot took in the theatre in Youngstown Thursday night.

Wm. Hunter attended the Odd Fellows' lodge in Canfield Wednesday night Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Stratford and children spent Sunday with Louis Kroeck and family in Austintown. Wm. Swanston had business in Toedo recently. Robert Kyle and family were Sun-ay visitors at David Loveland's in Jaselton. Oulte a number from here attended hurch in Canfield Sunday.

Mrs, Clark Lower of Youngstown peut a couple days with her parents, dr. and Mrs. Wm. Fink, and other relatives.

Earl Kyle has a position with the Sheet & Tube Co. in Youngstown and started to work today. Edward Sprinkle is serving as jurr in Youngstown.

Edwin Hunter was in Youngstown Saturday. Edward Kane had his force of men working Sunday in this road in order Mrs. H. W. Glenn and son of to complete it as soon as possible, > week with Miss Bertha Kohler near here. Miss Edna Houser and friends of Youngstown were on the street Sunday.

Mary Kyle spent one evening last

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Martin and daughter Doris of Perkins Corners vere here Monday. Leroy Toot and Edward Hushour vere in Youngstown Saturday.

Mrs. Lois Edsall and daughter, Mrs. marched unded the banner of tempertessler, and Leroy Toot attended the Hallowe'en celebration in Salem Monday night. Mr. and Mrs. Allen Mesimer of Watch Corners were on the street Sun-n Mrs. Mary Wehr and daughter Lilie Sunday. Quite a number from here heard the election returns in Youngstown and Canfield Tuesday night. George Hushour, Samuel Coach and

James Caldwell of Malvern called

Ernest Longbine of Youngstown were here Monday.

NEW ALBANY NNov. 3-Mrs. Frank Fisher has regained her health sufficiently to re-

Mrs. Robert Leipper pleasantly en tertained the Canfield Road Club Wed nesday. Mrs, Henry Weisberger of Winona

Joe. Blackburn. Lyman Schnurrenberger of Washngtonville was here Monday. Mrs. Perry Lodge called on friends spent Saturday with her sister, Mrs.

n this place Saturday. Mrs. Anna Hilles and Miss Elsa Bridge called at C. A. Pow's Sunday evening. Miss Barbara Lodge spent Saturday and Sunday in Salem.

A school fair will be held in the school house Nov. 11. Everybody come and make it the best in the township.
Miss Pearl Dougherty of Cleveland

here visiting her parents. Whooping-cough is epidem'c among he children and causing irregular chool attendance. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Pow spent Sunlay with relatives near Columbiana

Miss Ada Hipply spent Sunday with

A number from here attended the chool fair at Locust Grove and report a fine exhibit and splendid program rendered. Frank Clay of Greenfort was here Fuesday husking corn.

er parents here.

pirce.

day night.

Albert and Eimer Kenreich recently saled straw for C. A. Pow. Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Wilhelm of Sa em called here Monday. O. W. Bush has returned to Green-ford after a year's residence in this

A number of our people enjoyed the mardi gras celebration in Salem Mon-

ROSEMONT

Nov. 3-Farmers are busy picking apples, husking corn, ets. Not much corn has been husked yet. Mrs. F. Burke is spending some time at her farm here. Mrs. Burke, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Prince recently visited at the home of Shannon Roof and W. E. Rose. Mrs. Minnie Watters of Warren and son are spending a few days at W.

G. Howard's, Mrs. Percy Cole and Laby Bronson of Evans City and D. L. Rose and wife of Youngstown were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Rose. Mr. Rose and wife expect to soon go to Florida where they have purchased a home in

A donation party composed of 93 members of the four charges where Rev. G. H. Klotz preaches and a few friends and neighbors gathered at his home in Ellsworth last week Wednes day evening taking with them a little token as an evidence of their appreciation of his being returned to the four charges this year. A very pleasant time was had Rev. Klotz will enjoy his gift as much as did the donors in presenting same.
Miss Mary Howard is spending a few weeks with her aunt, Mrs. F. V. Rose and attending high school a Preaching by Rev. G. H. Klotz next Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Rose-mon! Everybody attend and hear a